SOMETHING NEW.

The undersigned has just returned from the city with all the

LATE IMPROVEMENTS

in Photography, and is introducing the new Style of Picture called the

"CABINET SIZE PHOTOGRAPH,"

which has attracted so much attention in New York and Philadelphia.

Having gone to considerable expense in refitting and improving his Gallery, he is enabled to make any of the

NEW STYLES OF PICTURES AT VERY LOW PRICES, FROM 25 CENTS UP.

He would also invite attention to his splendid stock of ALBUMS AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES; also GILT, ROSEWOOD, and WALNUT FRAMES and MOULDINGS, very cheap. Also Brackets for Ornamenting Parlors.

HIS FANCY CASES are of the latest style and made of the best material.

Photographs copied and Enlarged from old Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Paintings or any other kind of Picture.

Thankful to his friends for their patronage during the past fifteen years, he hopes to merit a continuance of the same, and would respectfully invite all who wish a correct likeness of themselves, to call and examine his work before going elsewhere, satisfied that he can give entire satisfaction to any who may favor him with their custom. Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable preparations ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

Price of the Tonic, $1 50 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $7 50.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL NOMINEES.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HORATIO SEYMOUR,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

FRANCIS P. BLAIR,

OF MISSOURI.

THE BONDHOLDER'S SONG.

AIR—"Miss Kilmansegg."

The bondholder sat in his easy chair;
Counting his gains was he;
And he turned up his nose at Seymour and Blair,
And called them a terrible traitorous pair,
While he sang to himself in glee!

"The people are saddled for us to ride,
And booted and spurred are we;
We rowel well every panting side,
And as safe on their drawny backs abide
As Sinbad's Old Man of the Sea.

"We give them paper for what we hold,
And not quite half the face;
But we'll get full payment in gold, hard gold,
(Though laboring men are bought and sold).
If we only win this race!

"The war is over—so some folks say;
But certainly that won't do;
We must keep it up till election day,
(Till then at least we can make it pay),
Hurrah for the red, white and blue!

"Hurrah for that glorious hero Grant!
The bondholder's choice he;
He'd speak if he could, but luckily can't,
And the masses won't know what a regular plant
A 'glorious hero' can be.

"I have misgivings, I must confess,
That we can't put the trick through;
That the people at last are beginning to guess
A national debt is a blessing unless—
A ring of a chosen few.

"But away with misgivings; who can prevent
The 'loyal' from getting the pay?
It is only three hundred and fifty per cent,
On every dollar of paper we've sent
Towards keeping the war under way!

"Hurrah for the flag of our country, then;
For, written on every fold,
I see, inscribed by J. Cooke's pen,
'Down with rebels, which means all men
Who won't pay our bonds in gold!'"

SPEECH OF GEN. EWING AT THE WASHINGTON RATIFICATION MEETING.

At the ratification meeting held in Washington on the evening of the 18th, the following speeches from Senator Doolittle and General Ewing were delivered:

Speech of Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., of Kansas.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: I appear before you this evening merely to speak a few words of cordial endorsement of the principles enunciated by the Democratic National Convention, and of the nomination of Seymour and Blair.

We are on the threshold of the most momentous political contest of our national history—one which will be an epoch in our annals as marked as that of the war for the preservation of the Union. We fought four years, sacrificed half a million of lives and four billions of money, to establish the principle that the Union is indissoluble. We have now to determine, and I hope by the peaceful abitrament of the ballot-box, whether we can preserve the form of government bequathed to us by our fathers.

The war was grandly successful. For three years past there has not been in the Southern States, an army raised against the national authority; for three years past our internal forts have been dismantled, and the defenses along our Southern coast, erected to guard against foreign invasion, no longer fearing domestic foes, have turned all their guns seaward; for three years past the commerce of the great Northwest has flowed down the Mississippi to the Gulf as free as its waters flow. [Applause.]

The Southern people have not yielded a sullen, reserved, or resentful submission to the decision of the war. They fought to settle a disputed question of construction of the Constitution, which our forefathers disagreed about, even while framing that instrument, and which they transmitted unsettled to their descendants. The South elected to settle it by wager of battle, and, having lost in the abitrament of the sword, they have shown themselves willing to accept and abide by its decision. The war had scarcely ended, when, by amendments to their State constitutions and laws, they formally renounced the doctrine of secession, to establish which they went to war; and I challenge successful contradiction of the statement, that, since the year 1865 they have shown in every possible way their loyal adhesion to the government of the United States, and their absolute and unreserved renunciation of the false doctrine of secession.

Now, gentlemen, the war was for no other purpose than to settle that disputed question. We all recollect that while it was going on the Democrats and Conservatives of the loyal States, who furnished at least one half of the men and money for its prosecution, were apprehensive lest the Republicans would do just that which they are now doing—use, in violation of the Constitution, the vast powers confided to them for the restoration of the Union for purposes of party and sectional aggrandizement. And you all remember how often and how solemnly the Republican party repeated the pledge that the war should not be waged in no spirit of oppression, but solely to restore the Union, with all the equality and rights of the States unimpaired.

The people of the United States trusted these declarations and believed them sincerely made. The soldiers trusted them, and, therefore, risked health and life in the cause. I ask any man who followed the flag during the war whether he would have fought to disfranchise and degrade the white people of the South, blot out their States, and subject them in serfdom to their former slaves, and to destroy the form of our national government established by the Constitution? [Prolonged cheering, and cries of "Never, never."] If Jacobins in the Capitol—who sat in cushioned chairs through the war and filled the quartermaster's, and commissary's, and contractor's departments with their friends and relatives—who never saw rebel fire except at Bull Run, and then stampeded at the first flash—had avowed such atrocious purposes while the war was going on, the Union armies would after conquering the rebels have marched on Washington to disperse these usurpers as equally dangerous to the Constitution and Union with the rebels in arms. [Tremendous cheering.]

I must, however, do the leaders of the Radical party the justice to say that during the war the most of them sincerely intended to perform these solemn pledges, and to have the avowed object of the war promptly accomplished at its termination. But when it ended they forgot their pledges and their patriotic purposes. They had not the courage to restore the Union, with the Southern States governed by white electors, lest, with its restoration, the Republican party would lose control of the general government. As many of the Radical leaders preferred when the South seceded, to let it go in peace in order that they might govern the rest of the nation, so at the end of the war they chose to destroy the Southern States, rather than have them return to shake their power.

Now, fellow-citizens, no man could have complained of the Republican party if it had fairly used its power at the close of the war, within the limits of the Constitution, for party advantage. What we have chiefly to complain of is that it has not only prevented reunion, but has, by Congressional fiat, destroyed, or attempted to destroy, the ten States we fought to restore to the Union. [Applause.] If they had only destroyed the ten States, and left them as Territories, to be restored in the next generation as States, their acts would have been more tolerable. But after destroying them, they disfranchised and disabled the whole governing talent of the South, and committed the political destinies of those States to the custody of a race just emerging from barbarism, through slavery, with whom we cannot commingle on terms of either social or political equality. Our form of government is one which can only exist and flourish where the electors are intelligent, and are, or may become, homogenous. If controlled in great part by electors grossly and hopelessly incompetent, of a race which can never become one with us, we cannot expect the government to stand and prosper. [Cries of "That's so," and applause.]

While the walls of these black governments are going up they have to be propped by Northern bayonets, and knowing that the Northern people will not long keep an army in the South to maintain them, Congress has now on its anvil a bill by which they will strip our Northern arsenals of artillery, muskets, sabres, and pistols, and give them to a black militia in the Southern States, to sustain these despotic governments when the national army shall have been withdrawn.

When these usurped State governments shall have been established, one of three results will follow: Either they will fall by the fiat of the Northern people in November or the Southern white men, by superior tact, will, through the forms of these de facto governments, obtain control of them; this whole scheme of reconstruction will be overthrown by the upheaval of civil war—aye, a civil war which, if the general government takes side with the black man against the white, will shad over the North, and its ashes must cover the ruins of the Republic. Is this the result for which our armies fought? Is this the "peace" of which General Grant talks in his letter? [Enthusiastic cheering.] Instead of having the restoration of the Union under the Constitution, which was the only ratification and object of the war, the Radicals give us this atrocious scheme, big with threatened disasters to the public. [Applause.]

But the Republican party has not stopped here. It has robbed the President of the most essential constitutional powers so as to practically destroy the Executive as one of the independent co-ordinate departments of the general government. It has in effect, too, destroyed the chief functions of the Supreme Court, the other co-ordinate department, taking from it the power of passing judgment on the constitutionality of the scheme of reconstruction. Striking down the greatest powers of the Executive and the Judiciary, it has broken loose from the restraints of the Constitution, and now acknowledges no limit to its power, and no right in any other department to question it.

I ask, fellow-citizens, whether we now live under the government formed by our forefathers—a government of three co-ordinate departments, each independent in its sphere, each a check on the usurpations of the others? No, we do not live under a Constitution, but under a Congress which tramples the Constitution under foot, and is for the time omnipotent.

Three years after the total suppression of the rebellion, the Radical party gives us as the result of its rule, and in return for the vast powers and treasures confided to it, a Union with ten of the great States destroyed, and ten St. Domingos erected in their stead, and in place of the beneficent government we inherited, it gives us a government in which the liberties of the States have been swallowed up by the central government, and the powers of the other Federal departments swallowed up by Congress. In short, we have no longer the government of the Constitution, but of a general assembly—a form which in no nation has ever lasted a lifetime—which is always begot of the frenzy and passions of revolutionists, and which has always been swiftly followed and easily overthrown by the despotism of a Cromwell or a Napoleon. [Loud cheering.]

I have been appealed to an hundred times, as one who fought for the Union, to turn from the Democratic party and support for the Presidency the leader of the Union armies. Gentlemen, it is because I love the Union and the Constitution earnestly enough to fight for them that I shall not support Grant, but shall support Seymour. [Great cheering.]

This is a contest in which the candidates presented for the suffrages of the people should be men of high statesmanship. While I freely accord to General Grant all the honor due to his patriotic and successful career as a soldier; while I am not only willing, but proud to say that Donelson, Vicksburg, and Missionary Ridge will make his name as a soldier immortal, I cannot, in good conscience, assert that his state papers place him in the front rank of statesmen. As a soldier he will always have the respect and honor of those who followed the flag; but as the zealous supporter and instrument of the intolerable and disloyal usurpations of Congress, he is not entitled to the trust or support of any man who wore the blue, and still loves the Constitution and the Union. (Prolonged applause.)

In MR. SEYMOUR we have a candidate who is a statesman and a patriot—one who would have been distinguished in the most illustrious days of American statesmanship—who, as Governor of the greatest State of the Union, when Gettysburg was fought, and afterward, when the Capital was beseiged, efficiently exerted his mighty powers for the rescue of the Republic—who, for his distinguished service to the Union cause, received the cordial thanks of Secretary Stanton, a War Minister never known to be fulsome or hasty in thanking Democrats for patriotic efforts. Listen to Mr. Stanton's letter of thanks to Governor Seymour:

"WAR DEPARTMENT,
"WASHINGTON, June 27, 1863.

"DEAR SIR: I cannot forbear expressing to you the deep obligations I feel for the prompt and candid support you have given to the government in the present emergency. The energy, activity and patriotism you have exhibited, I may be permitted personally and officially to acknowledge, without arrogating any personal claims on my part in such service or in any service whatever.

"I shall be happy to be always esteemed your friend.

"EDWIN M. STANTON.
"His Excellency Horatio Seymour."

If Governor Seymour, while thus holding up the hands of the government against the rebels, also courageously maintained the rights of the citizens of the loyal States—protested against the imposition, by a partisan provost marshal general, of exorbitant draft quotas in Democratic districts, and against the trial of Northern civilians by military commissions for offenses unknown to the laws, and defined only in Stantons's "General orders," Detective Baker's "insturuction," or Dr. Lebig's newly invented "common law of war"—I honor him all the more for that. [Great laughter and cheers.]

Gentlemen let the Radicals go forth and preach the destructive and revengeful measures they have been concocting for three years past. Let them try to rekindle in the North the passions which should have died with the war. Let them show what they have accomplished in destroying the Southern States, enslaving the white man, and making the negroes rulers; and in tearing down the beneficent government under which this nation has flourished for a century. I have no fear of the result. We will go forth and advocate a cordial reunion of the white people, North and South. We will talk of the Southern people no longer as enemies, but as friends and brethren united with us in restoring the union and the government of the Constitution. We will revive no revengful memories of the war, but rather grateful memories of the Revolution, of 1812, and of Mexico, in which Northern and Southern blood flowed on the same fields and on the same side. Having, as Mr. Lincoln boasted, captured "Dixie," we will play it alternately with "Old John Brown," to awaken memories of triumph or defeat, but only proud recollections of the valor displayed on both sides during the rebellion, and the renown and power it added to the American name throughout the world. We will carry the old flag, bearing on its folds no stars in black eclipse, but thirty-seven stars, each equally luminous and effulgent, and over the wreck of the Radical party and its usurpations we will restore the Constitution and the Union. [Tremendous cheering.]

LETTER FROM GENERAL HANCOCK; CORDIAL SUPPORT OF THE TICKET.

LOUISVILLE, July 27:—The following important correspondence is published in the Louisville Courier.

ST. LOUIS, July 13, 1868.

Major-General Hancock;

I deem it proper to direct your attention to statements made by the Radical press to the effect that you are greatly dissatisfied with the results of the National Democratic Convention. The object of the statements is to create an impression that you do not acquiesce in the judgment of the Convention. That your friends do not, and in consequence Seymour and Blair will not have their cordial support. I wish you to know, General, that I have taken the liberty to pronounce these statements false, and to assure those who have spoken with me on the subject, that nothing could cause you more regret than to find your friends, or any of them, less earnest in supporting the ticket which has been nominated than they would have been had your own name stood in the place of Mr. Seymour.

(Signed) S. T. GLOVER,
Newport, Rhode Island.

ST. LOUIS, July 19.

S. T. Glover.

MY DEAR SIR: I am greatly obliged for your favor of the 13th inst.—Those who suppose that I do not acquiesce in the work of the National Democratic Convention, or that I do not sincerely desire the election of its nominees, know very little of my character, believing, as I really do, that the preservation of constitutional government depends on the success of the Democratic party in the coming election, were I to hesitate in its candid support, I feel I should not only falsify my one record, but commit a crime against my country. I never aspired to the Presidency on account of myself. I never sought its doubtful honors and certain labors and responsibilities merely for the position. My own wish was to promote, if I could, the good of the country, and to rebuke the spirit of revolution which had invaded every sacred precinct of liberty. When, therefore, you pronounced the statements in question false, you did exactly right. Principles, not men, is the motto for the rugged crisis in which we are now struggling. Had I been made the Presidential nominee I should have considered it a tribute, not to me, but to the principles which I had proclaimed and practiced; but shall I cease to revere those principles because by mutual political friends another has been appointed to put them into execution? Never; never. These, sir, are my sentiments, whatever interested parties may say to the contrary, and I desire that all may know and understand them. I shall ever hold in grateful remembrance the faithful friends who, hailing from every section of the Union, preferred me by their votes, and other expressions of confidence, both in and out of the Convention, and shall do them all justice to believe that they were governed by patriotic motives; that they did not propose simply to aggrandize my personal fortunes, but to serve their country through me, and that they will not suffer anything like personal preferences or jealousies to stand between them and their manifest duty.

I have the honor to be, dear sir, very respectfully yours,

(Signed) WINFIELD S. HANCOCK.

A LABORING MAN CALCULATING.

All we want the laboring men to do is to calculate the difference between the cost of living in 1859, before the Republican party came in power. A laboring man down in Maine has set the example, and has given the benefit of his calculation to the Bangor Democrat. He figures as follows:

For four days' work in 1859 I could buy a barrel of excellent flour. For an equally good barrel now I have to work eight days.

For one day's work in 1859 I could buy five pounds of tea. For the same day's work I can now buy but two pounds.

For one day's work then I could buy thirty pounds of sugar. For a day's work now I can get but fifteen pounds.

For a day's work in 1859 I could buy eight pounds of tobacco. For a day's work now I can buy but three pounds.

For a day's work in 1859 I could buy fourteen pounds of coffee. For a day's work now I can but five pounds.

For one month's work in 1859 I could clothe my self and family for one year. To do the same now, I am obliged to work full two months and a half.

I might thus go through the whole list of articles that a laboring man and his family consume. The fact is that we are permitted to enjoy but one-half of the fruits of our labor; the other half goes to the Government and the plunderers of the public treasury.

Is it not time for me and my fellow laborers to look around us, ascertain the cause of this robbery of labor, and apply the remedy?

A WELL known lawyer, who prides himself upon his skill in cross-examining a witness, had an odd-looking genius upon whom to operate. The witness was a shoemaker.

"You say, sir, that the prisoner is a thief?"

"Yes sir, 'cause why, she confessed it."

"You also swear that she bound shoes for you subsequent to the confession?"

"I do, sir."

"Then," giving a sagacious look at the Court, "we are to understand that you employ dishonest people to work for you even after their rascalities are known?"

"Of course, how else could I get assistance from a lawyer?"

AGRICULTURAL.

Dairying and Raising Calves.

How is the ignorance of some farmers about rearing calves in conjunction with dairying to be accounted for? Every calf from the milch cows can be raised without making one pound less of butter, and the calves be as good at a year old as any which have sucked their dams. Even where cheese is made it can be done, though not quite as easily as when butter only is produced. Having seen it done for forty years, (when only seven years old I helped feed a number of calves summer and winter, for my father dairied all the year round and often bought calves for raising, in addition to all brought by his own cows,) and having done it myself, and being now raising some from three to nine weeks old, I can say with confidence that any man must be a little wanting in sound agricultural knowledge who does not understand this simple, and in many districts universal, way of breeding, weaning and rearing the best dairy stock in the world. The calves I am now weaning on milk which stands thirty-six hours, and then has the cream taken off, are in as thriving and growing a state as any can be.

No herd of dairy cows can be kept up and improved to return full profits, unless attention is given to use a first class bull from a good milking dam, as well as from pure blood, and then all the heifer calves from good cows may be weaned and brought round to be milch cows in due season. Some few years since a gentleman started a large dairy in the West. I corresponded with him and declared that he must raise calves to make the establishment pay, but it was of no use, and the farm was advertised for sale, as hundreds now are, and will be, because with all these fine cheese factories, &c., the majority of the great dairymen do not know how to raise calves cheaply, nor how to force them into maturity early; nor do they understand the importance of using only such a bull as is adopted for the getting of dairy cows. "Old Anthony" got stock sixteen years; he commenced as a yearling, and it was equally good one year as another.—Country Gentleman.

Mildew and Rot on Grape Vines.

As much attention is now being paid to the cultivation of the grape in Virginia, it may be interesting to all persons engaged therein, for me to make a report of an experiment and its results, on a Franklin grape vine, (one, the most liable to mildew which I know of) in the summer of 1867, when the grapes were about half grown.

I was engaged one evening (after sun down,) in watering some dwarf pear trees with a solution of copperas 1-4 to 1-2 lb. to a gallon of rain water,) when I thought I would try it on the grape vine. I did so and the next morning vine and fruit looked black and badly; but in twenty-four hours after, all mildew and rot had disappeared and the vine looked fine and healthy and what fruit remained ripened well. Should this prove to be, in all cases, a cure for mildew and rot on grape vines, its benefits to the grape growing community will be immense. Southern Planter and Farmer.

White Hard Soap.

Put a box of the "concentrated lye" into 2 quarts of boiling water; when dissolved, take 3 lbs of soft fat, or lard, and 2 lbs of tallow; melt it, strain if necessary, and then stir the lye in the fat, gradually, until it becomes thick and smooth as cream; then cover it well, and allow it to cool gradually. When done and cold, cut in cakes or bars.

Most Expeditious Way of Fattening Fowls.

Coop them in a moderately warm, dark, quiet place, with good ventilation, and keep perfectly clean, and feed on boiled or steamed potatoes, mixed with crushed oats or oatmeal, and blended with sweet milk with a little fine sand added, and given warm, but not hot. If in health and well attended, they will be fit for use in a fortnight.

To hear Gough tell the "drugger" story, is worth a quarter at any time. The story is a capital one, but it takes the man to tell it. This he does in some such words as these:

"A long, lean, guant Yankee entered a drug store and asked:

"Be you the drugger?"

"Well I s'pose so, I sell drugs."

"Waal, hev you got any of this here scentin' stuff as the gals put on their hekechers?"

"O yes."

"Waal, our Sal's gwine to be married, and she gin me ninepence and told me to invest the hull amount in scentin' stuff so's to make her sweet, if I could find some to suit; so if you've a mind I'll just smell round."

The yankee smelled round without being suited until the druggist got tired of him; and taking down a bottle of hartshorn said:

"I've got a scentin' stuff that will suit you. A single drop on your handkerchief will stay for weeks, and you can't wash it out, but to get the strength of it you take a big smell."

"Is that so Mister? Waal, just hold on a minute till I get my breath, and when I say neow, you put it under my smeller."

The hartshorn of course knocked the Yankee down, as liquor has done many a man. Do you suppose he got up and smelt again, as a drunkard does? Not he; but he rolling up his sleeves and doubling up his fists, he said:

"You made me smell that tarnal everlastin' stuff, Mister, and now I'll make you smell fire and brimstone."

A Western editor, in response to a subscriber who grumbles that his morning paper was intolerably damp, says, "that it is because there is so much due on it."

IS THE UNION RESTORED?

It is now upwards of three years since the suppression of the rebellion. During all this time the Radical party have had complete control of the government. The President, it is true, opposed their revolutionary and unconstitutional measures, but they deprived him of all practical power to resist them, and his vetoes were overridden, in every instance, by a two thirds Radical vote in both houses of Congress. They have had the purse and the sword of the Republic during these three dreadful, woeful years, and what have they accomplished? Is the Union restored to-day? Are all the States back in their old places as members of the Union? No! Some of them, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Arkansas and Alabama are represented in Congress by carpet-bag members, and this representation is only at the will of the majority in Congress. According to Edmunds' bill to regulate the electoral college, which passed the Senate, some time ago, that body decided that only such states as Congress might declare to be entitled to representation, shall be permitted to cast their votes for President and Vice President. Should any of the Southern States vote for Seymour and Blair, it will be an easy matter for Congress to declare them not entitled to representation, and thus keep them out of the Union. Hence the states just named, are mere tenants-at-will, under Congress, so far as membership of the Union is concerned. But where are Texas and Mississippi, and where is old Virginia, the "mother of states and Statesmen?" The Southern states, every one of them, so long ago as 1866, held conventions, repealed their ordinances of Secession, accepted the abolition of slavery, elected members of Congress and U. S. Senators, and by every necessary exercise of State authority, returned to their places in the Union. But the Radical Congress stepped in with the army and navy, between them and the Union, resolved to keep them out until they could force Negro Equality upon them at the point of the bayonet. Mississippi, by the votes of her own Negroes, rejected this outrageous scheme. As for Virginia and Texas, they have never yet been given an opportunity to vote for the Negro Constitutions which are the Radical ultimata. Aye, where are Mississippi, Virginia and Texas? Out of the Union to-day, kept out by the force of arms, at an expense of millions upon millions to the taxpayers of the North. And to this infamous procedure, Gen. Grant, by accepting the nomination of the Radicals, has made himself a party. Can any true Union man vote for him, and thus endorse the Disunion of the Radical Party?

It is all right with the Radicals when the brute Joe Brown, who as Governor of Georgia, founded and kept up the Andersonville prison pen, goes to their Chicago Convention and helps them nominate Grant, but when a brave man like Wade Hampton, who met our soldiers in the field, but didn't starve them to death in prison, attends a Democratic Convention, these saintly hypocrites hold up their hands and roll up their eyes in holy horror, at the bare thought of such a thing. Any scalawag rebel is clasped to their bosoms, if he will vote for Grant or sleep with a "nigger," but the purest and most honorable Southern gentleman is discarded by them, if he chooses to vote with the Democrats. Out upon such Pharisees! Their knavery is too contemptible to bear discussion.

WHAT ARE YOUR PRINCIPLES?

Are you in favor of Negro Suffrage? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He stands upon a platform which pledges the continuance of Negro Suffrage in eleven States of this Union, by the interference of the Federal Government.

Are you in favor of one rule of suffrage for twenty-six States, and another for the remaining eleven? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He is pledged to this unequal doctrine by the Chicago platform.

Are you in favor of the impeachment and removal of the President for political reasons? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. The Chicago platform endorses the impeachment conspiracy.

Are you in favor of Negro legislatures, Negro governors, and a Negro balance of power? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. The platform which he has accepted sustains the Reconstruction acts by which these things have been forced upon an unwilling people.

Are you in favor of a large standing army and navy, maintained at an expense of one hundred and fifty millions per annum? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He stands upon a platform which proposes to govern the Southern people by the military despotism of the Reconstruction acts.

Are you in favor of the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He is the candidate of the party which established and which continues in existence that expensive institution.

Are you in favor of exempting the wealthy bondholders from taxation? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He is the candidate of the Money-King, A. T. Stewart, and stands upon a platform which is silent upon this subject.

Are you in favor of a double-faced financial policy? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He is the candidate of a party whose platform is construed by Greeley and Forney to mean the payment of the public debt in gold, and by Stevens and Butler to mean the payment of the same in greenbacks.

Are you in favor of a candidate who declares he will have "no power" if elected? If so, vote for U. S. Grant. He assures you, in his letter of acceptance, that he will not trouble the country with a policy.

On the other hand, are you opposed to Negro Suffrage? Are you in favor of one rule of suffrage for the whole country, and that rule the regulation of that question by the people of each State for themselves? Are you in favor of rebuking the impeachers? Are you opposed to negro Legislatures, negro Governors, and a negro balance of power? Are you opposed to a large standing army, and the continuance of the Freedmen's Bureau? Are you in favor of taxing the bonds, and of the payment of the public debt, as speedily as practicable, in the lawful currency of the country, when not otherwise provided by law? Are you in favor of a candidate who will have a policy, the policy laid down by the Democratic platform? If so, vote for Horatio Seymour, the statesman, the scholar and the Christian gentleman.

ANOTHER BOND-HOLDER'S DEVICE.

A "funding bill" was passed by Congress, a few days before the adjournment, which authorizes the holders of the five-twenty bonds to fund their securities by receiving therefor other bonds at 4 per cent. interest, the principal and interest to be payable in gold. This was done in order to head off the popular movement to pay off these bonds in greenbacks. The bond-holders want to continue to suck the life-blood out of the labor and the industry of the country, by drawing their interest in gold, and after a while they will demand, under this "funding bill," the payment of the principal in gold. But the people have something to say to this. The next Congress will be Democratic, and then discriminations in favor of the bond-holder will cease. The industrial interests of the country cannot afford to permit the election of another such Congress as the present.

OUR NOMINEES FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

We raise to-day the names of Abraham Wilson, of Somerset county, and Geo. McGovern of Fulton, as the nominees of the Democratic party for members of the House of Representatives for this district. They are good men and true, honest and capable, and ought to be elected by a handsome majority. Mr. Wilson served during the war, in the 54th Pa. vols., and is beloved and respected, not only by his late comrades in arms, but by all who enjoy his acquaintance. Esq. McGovern is a well-known citizen of Fulton county, was at one time commissioner of that county, and has always taken a prominent part in the public affairs of little Fulton. We defy the Radicals to match this ticket.

THE Radicals have started the lie that there was a Negro delegate in the Democratic National Convention at New York. We will make any one a present of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS if he gives the Negro's name, or proves that any black man was a member of that body.

LETTER OF GEN. HANCOCK.

He Comes Out Strong for Seymour and Blair.

We ask the attention of our readers, and especially of every citizen who served in the Union army during the late war, to the letter of Gen. W. S. Hancock, which will be found on the first page of this issue. It will be seen that the gallant General most cordially and emphatically endorses the nomination of Seymour and Blair, and expresses, in the most unequivocal manner, his desire for the triumph of Democratic principles. Let every soldier-citizen write down the following from this noble letter and bear it about him against the insidious tricks of the Radical Disunionists and as a political guide during the present campaign:

"Believing, as I really do, that the preservation of constitutional government depends on the success of the Democratic party, in the coming election, were I to hesitate in its candid support, I feel I should not only falsify my own record, but commit a crime against my country."

When the brave, the noble Hancock, the hero of Gettysburg and the Wilderness, the central figure of a hundred battles for the Union, the pride and glory of the Pennsylvania soldiery, declares that he would "commit a crime against his country," if he did not support the Democratic nominees, in the present crisis, who can hesitate to enlist under our banner? Where is the man who is not willing to follow where the patriot Hancock leads?

A FEW QUESTIONS.

Will Mr. Thomas Marshall answer these questions in the speech which we understand he is to make here next Saturday?

Is the Radical, or Republican, party in favor of Negro Suffrage?

If not, is it opposed to Negro Suffrage?

Is it in favor of taxing government bonds?

Is it in favor of paying the five-twenty bonds, principal and interest, in gold or in greenbacks?

And will he deny that the Radical Congress have admitted Sawyer, a rebel blockade-runner, to a seat in that body, that Joe Brown, the founder of the Andersonville prison, was a member of the Convention that nominated U. S. Grant, and that nineteen negroes were also members of that Convention?

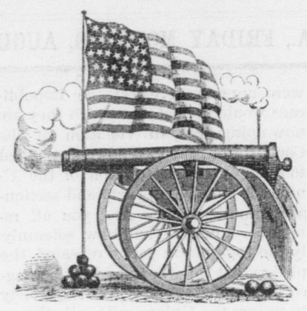

THE INQUIRER gets furious because a telegram to the Harrisburg Patriot stated that the Radical meeting on Saturday week was a failure, that Gov. Curtin did not speak and that Mr. Marshall, of Pittsburg, said he could run the blackest negro in the Union against Seymour and beat him in Allegheny county. That telegram stated nothing but the truth. Considering the efforts that were made by the Radicals to get up a crowd, the meeting was a miserable, flat, contemptible failure. If it had not been for the ladies, boys and Democrats who attended that meeting, the court room would not have been half filled. As it was, there was a beggarly account of empty benches in one part of the room. As for the rest, every body here knows that Curtin did not speak and that Marshall made the declaration attributed to him. Let the Inquirer deny it if it dares, and we will produce the proof. Come now, "the proof of the pudding is the chewing of the string." Toe the mark, Lutz!

We ask the Bedford Inquirer, Was not Joe Brown, of Georgia, the ex-rebel Governor of that State, the founder of Andersonville prison, the same man who remanded into slavery negro soldiers who were taken prisoners by the rebels, a member of the Chicago Convention which nominated General Grant? Again, is not Sawyer, the rebel blockade-runner, a Radical U. S. Senator from South Carolina? And yet again, is not Roderick Butler, a Radical member of Congress from Tennessee, and was he not an officer of the rebel army? And still once again, did not Mullins, another Radical Congressman from Tennessee, denounce, on the floor of Congress, one of the Radical Congressmen from South Carolina, as having been a Major in the rebel army, and as being a murderer to boot? Now, answer these questions, or hold your tongue about Gen. Hancock, Gen. Franklin and other Democratic generals shaking hands with Wade Hampton and N. B. Forrest. Talk up, or shut up.

SEYMOUR, the experienced statesman, the upright, moral citizen, the plain farmer of Deerfield, against U. S. Grant, inexperienced in civil affairs, unable to utter three consecutive sentences in good English, accused of drunkenness by Wendell Phillips, Theodore Tilton and other leaders of his own party, proved a falsifier by five members of the cabinet, with nothing to recommend him save the fact that he took Richmond by sacrificing more men than Lee had in his whole army. Who would not prefer the former?

"LET us have peace," says Grant, with his bayonets at the throats of the people of ten States and his hand in the purse of the Northern taxpayers.

THUNDER!!!

"Get out of the way, you're all unlucky, We are the boys from Old Kentucky!"

The State of Clay and Crittenden Speaks!

75,000 DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN KENTUCKY!

The election for Governor and other state officers in Kentucky, came off on Monday last, and resulted in the election of Stevenson, Democrat, over Baker, Radical, by 75,000 majority!—Louisville gave over 7,000 Democratic majority. This state elected the Republican candidate for Governor in 1863, by 20,000 majority, but he and his friends, Geo. D. Prentice among the number, have since joined the Democrats, and hence this glorious result. Of course the Bedford Inquirer will call this a "rebel" victory, but it will hardly claim it as a triumph for such "rebels" as Joe Brown, Sawyer and Roderick Butler.

SPEECH OF MAJ. GENERAL EWING.

We call the attention of our readers to the able speech of Gen. Ewing, in advocacy of the election of Seymour and Blair, printed on our outside. Gen. Ewing is one of the most gallant and distinguished soldiers of the late war, is a son of Thomas Ewing, of Ohio, a well known Whig, and was until lately a "Republican."

THE Radicals the other day nominated Chas. Gibbons, Esq., as their candidate for District Attorney of Philadelphia. The police had to be called in to preserve order in the Convention. The most disgraceful scenes transpired, and no nomination could have been made on account of the disorder, if the police had not taken the Constitution in hand. Gibbons will be beaten by a large majority.

THE decision of the Supreme court declaring the Registry law unconstitutional, has saved the tax-payers of this county more than a thousand dollars! The tendency of all Radical legislation is to increase the taxes instead of reducing them. Is it not time that the tax-ridden people drive the Radicals from power?

GRANT draws twenty thousand dollars per annum, as a salary for doing nothing as "General of all our armies," and wants to draw twenty-five thousand a year more for playing tool to the Radicals.

The Georgia U. S. Senators.

The Georgia Legislature, as already stated, has elected Hon. Joshua Hill for the long term, and Dr. H. V. Miller for the short term, to the United States Senate. The National Intelligencer says:

Mr. Hill was for several terms a member of Congress from Georgia, and refused to withdraw with his colleagues in 1861. He remained a consistent adherent of the federal government during the late war; was in favor of the congressional plan of reconstruction, but voted for Gen. John B. Gordon for Governor, the democratic nominee, who was defeated by the radical carpet-bagger, R. B. Bullock. Mr. Hill is about fifty-five years of age, of fine personal appearance, and very clever abilities. He has ever been a staunch old line whig.

Dr. Homer Virgin Miller is likewise an old line whig, was a warm advocate of the the election of John C. Breckinridge, was surgeon of the celebrated 8th Georgia regiment, was a member of the late reconstruction convention of Georgia, and, like his colleague, Mr. Hill, supported Gen. Gordon for Governor. Dr. Miller is a gentleman of varied accomplishments, and is one of the most accomplished orators of the South. Dr. Miller is about fifty years of age.

Both of the newly-elected Senators are natives of South Carolina, and have been residents of Georgia from boyhood. The election of these gentlemen is a great triumph over carpet-bag radicalism, and a still greater triumph over Joe Brown and Foster Blodgett.

Attack of Radicals on a Seymour and Blair Meeting.

ST. LOUIS, July 29, 1868.

On Saturday the Democrats of Salisbury and Pettis counties held a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting at Bear Lick. The radicals had threatened to break up the meeting. When Colonel Phillips, a gallant federal officer, began to speak the radicals attacked the meeting, largely composed of women and children, with clubs and rocks. They were driven off and twice afterwards they renewed the attack. Finally the radical leader drew a revolver and shot a Democrat named Cheatham. This was the signal for a general battle.—About one hundred shots were fired in the melee and three radicals were killed and seven badly wounded, and about twenty on both sides more or less severely. The radicals were driven to the woods and the meeting broke up in the wildest dismay and confusion.

—The appropriations made at the second session of the Fortieth Congress are nearly twenty-two millions more than those made at the second session of the Thirty-ninth Congress. The regular army appropriation, without taking into consideration items of deficiency, amount to 30 millions more now than then. The cost of Radical rule increases every year.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

—The Seymour and Blair campaign banner for the Metropolitan Democratic Club of New York is the largest ever made in this country. It is fifty feet long and thirty feet wide, and when raised to its place in front of the rooms of the club on Union Square will fill up Fourteenth street from curb to curb. The portraits of Seymour and Blair are made from actual photographs, and although six times as large as life, are very correct. Across the top of the banner is painted, in large colored letters two feet high, the name of the club.

—Mr. Thomas Hooper, whose death occurred a few days ago, was the oldest Mason in Massachusetts, and the oldest Past Master in the United States. He was Master of King Solomon Lodge in 1812.

—Farmers in Minnesota carry tubs and water pails into their fields to contain the potato bugs which they pick off as they would so many berries. In some instances the bug crop is larger than the ordinary yield of potatoes.

—Raw beef, according to the accounts of travelers, has for a long time been a common article of diet in Abyssinia, cayane pepper and mustard being freely used on it.

—At a late swimming match on the Serpentine river, London, a distance of 1,000 yards was swam in 18 minutes and 18 seconds.

—The negroes are troublesome in the interior of South Carolina, and the whites ask for troops, or say they will protect themselves.

—Franklin J. Moses has been elected Chief Justice of South Carolina. The Radicals are said to be disgusted, as he has never acted with their party.

—It is stated that rats may be driven from a building by sprinkling their places of resort with yellow ochre, a cheap paint.

—Miss Kate Keathley, the Missouri giantess, died on Saturday last at her home near St. Louis. She weighed just 812 pounds.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.—A terribly tragedy—resulting in the death of William Lane, a plasterer by trade and an old resident of this place, from injuries received at the hands of Thomas H. Fagen, also a plasterer and a resident of this place—occured in this borough on Saturday afternoon, July 25.

The main facts in the case, as elicited before the Coroner's inquest, are briefly these: Lane and Fagen met in the bar room of the United States Hotel about 4 o'clock, and, both being under the influence of liquor, got into an altercation out a lime or mortar box. During the altercation Lane drew a pocket knife and threatened to cut Fagen, and did cut his arm, when Fagen knocked him down, and whilst down kicked and beat him with a chair about the head and face with such violence as to cause his death in a few minutes.

An inquest was held upon the body by Justice Leet, and after hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from kicks and blows inflicted by Fagen.

Fagen was arrested immediately after the occurrence, taken before Esquire Leet and committed to prison.

Lane was about 55 years of age, and leaving a wife and several grown up sons and daughters. His remains were interred in the Lutheran cemetery on Sunday afternoon, with military honors, he having served in the Union army during the rebellion as a member of the gallant old 84th P. V.

Fagen is also a married man and the father of several children. He formerly resided at Broad Top, but has been living in this place for the past year.—Hollidaysburg Standard.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY.—About midnight, July 22d, 1868, Mr. Quincy Walter, clerk in the store of Schell & Walter, at Gebhartsburg, in this county, was awakened from sleep by a slight noise at the outside door of the store. Quietly getting up and looking out of the window from the second story, he discovered a burglar at his work, trying to force open the transom window above the door. Mr. Walter at once reached for his pistol, and fired, when the burglar decamped. The next morning a chip hat was found on the steps showing that a ball had passed along the crown and through the brim of the hat. Traces of blood were also found on the hat, showing that the burglar had at least got scraped. Mr. Walter evidently had presence of mind enough to do the right thing. Powder and ball are the only proper antidotes for gentlemen who would thus attempt a crime so dastardly. There are strong suspicions as to who the burglar is, but they are prudently kept quiet for the present.—Somerset Democrat.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the 7th of August until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .50
Ten copies,	5.00
Twenty copies,	9.00
Fifty copies,	20.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

THE Germans of Philadelphia are deserting the Radical camp.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

DR. TOBIAS' Celebrated Venetian Liniment whose wonderful cures, sure and instantaneous action in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Toothache, Cuts, Burns, Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, etc., have astonished the civilized world. It is no new catch-penny, but an article that has stood the test of twenty years. The enormous sale and rapidly increasing demand is at once the surest evidence of its usefulness and popularity. Try it and be convinced. No family should be without a bottle in the house—hundreds of dollars, and many hours of suffering may be saved by its timely use. Colic, Cramp, and Dysentery yield at once to its pain-curative properties. It is perfectly innocent, and can be given to the oldest person or youngest child. No matter, if you have no confidence in Patent Medicines—try this, and you will be sure to buy again and recommend to your friends. Hundreds of Physicians recommend it in their practice. None genuine unless signed, "S. I. Tobias." Price 50 cents ber bottle. Sold by all the Druggists. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. jul24w4

A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment. To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

More Democratic Thunder!

The Watchfires burn brightly!

The Democrats of Bedford and vicinity, under the auspices of the Seymour and Blair Campaign club, held another meeting, on last Saturday evening, in the Court House. Although only announced as a club meeting, it was larger than the Grant and Colfax "mass meeting" held on the Saturday before. The Democracy of the neighboring townships was well represented. Bloody Run borough is entitled to special mention, as the gallant Democratic boys from that stronghold of Radicalism brought up a delegation of forty-three, headed by a band of martial music, with banners waving, as cheer after cheer, for the Democratic nominees rent the air. The meeting was organized by the selection of the following officers:—President, J. D. LUCAS, ESQ., of Bloody Run; V. Pres'ts, John Henderson, M. Reed, Esq., Peter Koons, James Sheeder, Hon. A. J. Snively and W. S. Beegle. Secretaries, S. H. Feather and W. P. Mickel.

GEN. W. H. MILLER, of Harrisburg, then addressed the meeting in a speech of nearly two hours. He reviewed the policy of the party in power, and showed, with great force, the ruinous effect of that policy, if the people will permit them to tyrannize over them for four years to come. He administered a scathing rebuke to those "loil" creatures who are continually crying "copperhead," yet while the war was going on were always found nearest home, with their valuables shipped to a safe distance. His speech was well received, which was fully attested by the frequent rounds of applause which interrupted him. The next speaker was R. MILTON SPEER, Esq. of Huntingdon, who, owing to the lateness of the evening, was compelled to make his remarks brief. He contrasted the two platforms, and showed clearly the equivocal, double meaning of the one, and the plain outspoken truths of the other. The people have made up their minds not to be deceived. They want to know what becomes of the enormous taxes which they are compelled to pay, and yet the national debt increasing. This is not a contest of men but of measures. The speaker concluded with an appeal to all conservative men to rally around the standard of their country and save it from the destruction of Radicalism. Our people were well pleased with Mr. Speer's address, and only regretted that he was obliged to quit so soon. The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Seymour and Blair, the next President and Vice President of the United States!

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF BLOODY RUN AND VICINITY:

The undersigned chairman of the Vigilance Committee of Bloody Run Borough, respectfully invites all who are opposed to Negro Suffrage and Negro supremacy, all who are in favor of one currency for all, the government and the citizen, the producer and the bondholder, all who are in favor of equal taxation, including government bonds, all who are in favor of abolishing the Freedmen's Bureau, and the reduction of the Standing Army, and all who are in favor of an immediate restoration of the Union, to meet, on Saturday, 15th August, in the borough of Bloody Run, for the purpose of forming an organization to carry into effect the principles herein set forth.

By order of the committee,

J. D. LUCAS,
Bloody Run, Aug. 4. Chairman.

MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE.—Pursuant to notice the Democratic County Committee met at the Court House, on Saturday last, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for county Auditor, in place of V. Steckman, Esq., declined. On motion, M. A. Hunter, Esq., of Broad Top, was unanimously nominated. After the transaction of some other business, the Committee adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

J. W. DICKERSON, Ch'n.
W. S. BERKSTRESSER, Sec'y.

HOW DO YOU LIKE IT?—The GAZETTE appears to-day in an enlarged form, with a new head, and otherwise improved. How do you like it, reader? We think the shape much better than it was before, and we are now in condition to give the enemy a raking fire, fore and aft. And they shall have it, too. Clear the decks, swing open the port-holes, run out the guns and let us give them a broadside that will sink the piratical craft of Radicalism to the very bottom.

A GOOD TICKET.—The gallant Democracy of Somerset county have nominated the following excellent ticket:—Congress, Hon. A. H. Coffroth; Law Judge, W. J. Baer; Assembly, Abraham Wilson; Dist. Attorney, H. G. Baer, Commissioner, Geo. Johnson; County Surveyor, H. D. Altfather; P. H. Director, Charles Ream; Auditor, Patrick Dorsey. The people of that county would do themselves great honor if they would elect such true men to office once, in that dyed-in-the-wool region.

A man named Hoyle, who broke jail some time ago in Semerset, was recaptured in Lawrence county the other day.

AMUSEMENTS AT THE SPRINGS.—The "season" at the Springs, has been quite gay during the past few weeks. One night witnessed a "goblin dance," another a grand "masquerade," still another series of fine and interesting "tableaux," and on Wednesday evening of last week, there came off a "fancy dress ball," which was entirely au fait. We give below a list of the characters represented in this ball, and the initials of those who appeared in them:

Donna Isabella—Mrs. C., of Philadelphia; black lace and diamonds.
Spanish Lady—Mrs. R., of Philadelphia; crimson and black lace.
Norma—Mrs. McC., of Chambersburg.
Maid of Saragossa—Miss J., of St. Louis.
Marquise—Miss B., of Philadelphia; blue silk, pearls and powder, and train of Brussels lace.
Zuleika—Miss M——e, of Baltimore.
White Lady of Avenel.—Miss M., of Baltimore, White Tulle and Lilies.
Quakeress—Miss S., of Baltimore.
Wattean Shepherdess—Miss G., of Philadelphia; cloth of gold, looped with roses, pearls, powder and gilt crook.
Court Shepherdess—Miss N., of Baltimore; blue silk, festooned with roses, pearls and powder.
Indian Princess—Miss T., of Philadelphia.
Swiss Peasant—Miss P., of Philadelphia.
Flower Girl—Mrs. M. P., of Philadelphia.
Court Peasant—Mrs. N., of Baltimore.
Mrs. Jarley—Miss C., of Bellefonte.
Highland Mary—Miss J., of Cumberland.
Wife of an old time Yankee—Mrs. F., of Brooklyn.
Baker—Miss M. C., of Bellefonte.
Butcher—Mr. B., of Philadelphia.
Candlestick-maker—Mr. M., of Baltimore.
Earl of Leicester—Col. D., of Pittsburg.
Don Cesar De Bazan—Mr. C. Anderson, of Huntingdon.
Scottish Chief—Mr. E. Anderson, of Bedford.
Edgar Ravenswood—Mr. P., of Carlisle.
Ali Pasha—Dr. A., of Bedford.
Sunflower—Mr B., of Wilmington, Del.
News-vender—Dr. H., of Baltimore.
Selim—Mr. V., of Baltimore.
Brother Jonathan—Mr. L., of New York
Mephistopheles—Mr. N., of Baltimore.
Gipsey King—Mr. H., of Wilmington, Del.
Brigand—Mr. J., of St. Louis.
Frontiersman—Mr. B., of Baltimore.
Turk—Mr. C. D., of Pittsburg.

In addition to the amusements before mentioned, there have been sack-races, climbing the greasy pole, catching a pig with its tail shaved and duly greased, &c., &c. We expect soon to chronicle a grand tournament, in which ancient chivalry will be cast in the shade by the gallant bearing of the knights of modern times. It will thus be seen that the visitors at the Springs are enjoying themselves, which they have a perfect right to do, and which we hope they may continue to do at all times and under all circumstances.

DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATIVE CONFERENCE.—The Democratic conferees for the Representative district composed of the counties of Bedford, Fulton and Somerset, met at the Bedford Hotel, in Bedford, on Tuesday last, Aug. 4, and organized by the appointment of A. J. Colborn, Esq., as President, and W. C. Schaeffer, as Secretary. The following conferees presented their credentials and were admitted to seats in the conference.

Bedford—D. A. T. Black, L. N. Fyan and W. C. Schaeffer.
Fulton—B. W. Barton, W. L. Mosby and J. Nelson Sipes.
Somerset—J. B. Richardson, A. J. Colborn and C. F. Uhl.

On motion nominations for candidates for Representatives, were made, and the names of Abraham Wilson, of Somerset, T. H. Lyons, of Bedford and Geo. McGovern, of Fulton, were placed in nomination. Mr. Schaeffer presented the following letter of declination from Capt. T. H. Lyons, which was received and ordered to be incorporated in the proceedings.

BEDFORD, PA., Aug. 4, 1868.

To the Democratic Conferees for the Representative district composed of the counties of Bedford, Fulton and Somerset.

GENTLEMEN:—Having been presented by the Democratic Convention of Bedford county as a candidate before you for the nomination for Representative, I beg leave most respectfully to decline the proffered nomination. I am induced to pursue this course, not by any want of faith in the principles of the Democratic party, or in the probable success of the nominees of the party in this Representative district, but wholly by my disinclination to leave my business, which demands my presence at home. I beg leave to say, in this connection, that I intend to vote as I fought, for a Union of co-equal States, and will cast my ballot most cheerfully for the Democratic ticket in October, and for Seymour and Blair in November. The compliment paid me by my fellow Democrats of Bedford county, in presenting my name for the honorable position of Representative in the State Legislature, will always be highly appreciated and gratefully remembered. Respectfully yours, T. H. LYONS.

On motion of D. A. T. Black, the nominations of Wilson and McGovern were then made unanimous.

On motion, Resolved that the proceedings of this conference be published in the Democratic papers of the district, and in the Harrisburg Patriot and the Philadelphia Age.

On motion adjourned sine die.

A. J. COLBORN, Pres't.
W. C. SCHAEFFER, Sec'y.

THE CAPITAL.—John A. Logan and the Fulton Republican, are urging the removal of the seat of government to the West. We laughed when Logan made the proposition in Congress, but since the Republican has a full sized column leader, of rare argument and power, we have serious apprehensions that the thing will be done before the election! After that time the Democrats will go to Washington themselves, and the Rads can locate their capital somewhere on Salt River.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Friday last, Messrs. Jacob B. Anderson, Wm. Pool, Sam'l Wentling, Albert Growden and Franklin Kelley, of Cumberland Valley tp., went to Cumberland, Md., in a wagon, and in the evening, when about to start for home, as they were crossing the railroad track, they were struck by an engine, which smashed the wagon into pieces and severely injured a number of the party. Esq. Anderson was badly hurt about the head and lay for some time in an insensible condition. Mr. Kelley was also severely injured about the head, and Wm. Pool had his foot and leg badly crushed. At latest accounts the sufferers were doing well. We deeply sympathize with our friends in their misfortune and wish them all most heartily a speedy recovery.

CIGAR AND TOBACCO LICENSE.—The new tax law, passed by the Radical Congress, obliges every cigar and tobacco dealer to take out a five dollar license. Hotels, store, restaurants, candy shops, or any one who sells either of the above articles, must have a special license for that purpose. The Radicals have a perfect mania for piling on the taxes. Nothing escapes them. Hurrah for Grunt and Polltax!

COUNTY AUDITOR.—Pursuant to the call of the chairman, the County Committee met in this place, on Saturday last, to nominate a candidate for County Auditor, in place of V. Steckman, declined. M. A. Hunter, of Riddlesburg, was unanimously nominated. Mr. Hunter is engaged in the mercantile business, is a man of excellent business capacity, and will make a first rate auditor.

THE REGISTRY LAW.—The infamous Registry law hurried through the legislature last winter, to help the waning cause of Radicalism in this state, having been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court, assessors need pay no attention to any of its provisions. The laws heretofore governing elections are still in force, and no others.

GRATIS.—The "Republican" Silver Cornet Band took advantage of the large crowd of Democrats in town last Saturday evening, and made a display of their new horns. We understand they are going to play gratis at every Democratic meeting held in this town. This is very kind in them and shows a good feeling between the parties.

A FILTHY SHEET.—The Fulton Republican is a model of choice language. Its columns abound with such choice epithets as these: "rebels," "traitors," "sneaking, traitorous, slimy copperhead." The editor must be one of those fellows who graduate in the fish-market.

REV. ARTHUR BOGDAN, of the Nestorian church, from Bethlehem in Judea, will preach next Sunday (August 9th), in the morning, in the Presbyterian church, and in the evening in the Lutheran church—Subject: "The Persecutions and the Sufferings of the Christians in Turkey."

THE Radicals of Somerset county have for the fourth term nominated John Mong for Commissioner. Of the numerous applicants, there appears to be but one a-Mong them fit for that office.

THE Radical papers say that Seymour is a bond-holder and abuse him for it, while at the same time they are assailing the memory of the late Ex-President Buchanan because he held no bonds. Here is consistency for you!

THE Radicals have brought all the "fuss and feathers" into this campaign; the Democrats have all the argument. The time has gone by for the former to win.

ON A VISIT.—Hon. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, paid our town a visit one day last week. The General looks well and gives a good account of the Somerset county Democracy.

WILL SEE YOU.—The druggists and other merchants of our county, are advised that Mr. Robert Barker, of the firm of T. Morris Perot & Co., Philadelphia, is now on a tour through this county and will call upon them to solicit orders in his line of business.—Barker is in a good house and does a fair and square trade. Treat him kindly.

NO DISPUTING IT.—When a lady wants a nice and good pair of shoes or gaiters, or a nice shoe for a child is needed, she can get it at the Regulator's. There is no disputing the fact that all who want good boots, shoes, queensware, groceries, tobacco, cigars, notions, &c., can get them at Irvine's.

CHEAP.—Now is the time to buy Ready-made clothing, as Berkstressers are offering a very large assortment of all kinds, at very low prices. It would be well for persons needing anything in the line of ready-made clothing to call at their store.

"WHY stand you thus amazed?" To see a person of your natural beauty with a head of dry bristling unkempt hair! Go purchase a bottle of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." It will tranform your hair into beautiful glossy ringlets. Nothing so efficacious has ever been offered to the public.—Lowell Courier.

COARSE people use coarse perfumery, and vice versa, it is safe to set down a lady who uses that spiritual perfume, PHALON'S "FLOR DE MAYO," as a person of taste and sensibilty—perhaps a poetess, or a fine musician. Sold by all druggists.

From the best authority we have reason to believe that the "Crœsus Soap," manufactured by Messrs. Hockley & Hall, advertisment in this issue, is an article posessed of superior merit. Reader try it!

THE San Francisco (Cal.) Musical Times, in a specific notice of the different church organs in that city, thus gives the following complimentary testimonial to the AMERICAN ORGAN. The extract says:—"What the most successful church organ makers have accomplished in pipe organs, Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, of Boston, Mass., have accomplished in reed organs. To their mechanical genius and enterprise, is due the perfect instrument they now produce, giving the power of the pipe organ, and a tone almost indentical. The AMERICAN ORGANS manufactured by Messrs. Smith, are infinitely superior to any other reed organ made in the world."

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS.
THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING Co., Albany, N. Y., Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Sawmills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.

We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim it far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.

We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we are now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.

These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.

For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address The Albany Cotton Gin Manufacturing Co., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

WE ARE ON HAND,
And will sell more for the money than any
DOLLAR CONCERN IN THE COURTRY.

☞Our inducements for forming Clubs are more than double that of any establishment in the country.

For the proof of this assertion, please examine our Terms to Agents which are as follows:

☞Read carefully and compare with the terms for getting up clubs, as advertised by other establishments.

Any person sending us Two Dollars can receive for the same a selection from the following articles:—Two (not one) 50 picture Morocco Albums, 2 (not one pair) of Congress Boots, 2 pieces (not one piece) of Pants Pattern, 2 (not one) 5 bottle Revolving Castors, 2 (not one) worsted Breakfast Shawls, or any two articles (not one article) from our exchange list.

We will also send 20 printed notices of articles for sale at one dollar each.

Any person sending Three Dollars, can receive for the same a selection from the following articles:—15 yds. De Laine, 1 white Marseilles Quilt, 2 (not one) 100 view Turkey Morocco Albums, 20 yds, Sheeting, Wool Square Shawl, 2 sets (not one set) Gold Bosom Studs, 2 (not one), Hair Guard Chains, with gold plated trimmings. (The trimmings of these chains are advertised by other concerns as GOLD, which is a deception, as they are all of them gold plated. 2 (not one) silver plated, chased Butter Dishes, 2 (not one) silver plated 5 bottle Revolving Castors, 2 sets (not one set) Steel Bladed Knives and Forks, 2 (not one) Worsted Promenade Shawls, 3 (not one) ladies' long gold plated chains, 3 (not one) ladies' solid Gold Double Rings, 2 (not one) gents' heavy chased gold plated Rings. (These rings are advertised by other concerns as solid gold, which is a fraud upon the public.) 3 (not one) black walnut Work Box or Writing Desks, 2 (not one) extra quality Balmoral Skirts, 2 sets (not one) of Jewelry and Sleeve Buttons to match, 2 (not one) superior Turkey Morocco Shopping Bags, 2 pairs (not one) ladies' Balmoral Boots.

We will also send 40 printed notices of articles for sale at one dollar each.

Any person sending Five Dollars, (not six dollars) can receive for the same a selection from the following articles.—A black or colored Alpacca Dress Pattern, a Poplin Dress Pattern, 1 piece of Brown or Bleached Sheeting, 1 engraved (6 bottles) silver plated Revolving Castor, 4 yds superfine Cassimere, extra heavy large sized White Quilt, 1 pair gents' Calf Boots, 4 yds. good Wool Frocking, 2 (not one) best quality Balmoral Skirts, an eight day Clock, made by Seth Thomas, 4 yds. double width Cloth for ladies' Sacks or children's wear, a silver plated Cake or Card Basket, Fur Muff or Cape, Wool Long Shawl, splendid clasp Family Bible, 4 yds. (not 3 yds.) double width water proof cloaking, 2 sets each (not one set each) Ivory Handle Knives, with Silver plated Forks, 1 set of Lace Curtains.

We will also send 60 printed notices of articles for sale at one dollar each.

Any person sending Ten Dollars, can receive for the same a selection from the following articles:—7 yds. (not four yds) double width Cloth for Cloaking or Coating, 3 (not two) Bleached Linen Table Cloths, with 2 doz (not one doz.) Linen Damask Napkins, 30 yds. (not 25 yds.) Hemp Carpeting, 13 yards extra quality black or colored Alpacca Dress Patterns, 14 yds. extra quality, Poplin Dress Patterns, Silver Hunting Case Watch, new (not second handed) 2 doz. (not one doz.) ivory handled steel bladed Knives and Forks, 1 pr. superior Wool Blankets, nice Fur Muff and Cape, 2 (not one) silver plated engraved Ice Pitchers, 9 yds. (not 7 yds.) Wool Cassimere for suit, 2 doz. (not one doz). Rogers' best silver plated Forks, Common Sense Sewing Machine (the real article, not a base imitation as used by other concerns), 4 (not two) Honey Comb Quilts, 2 (not one) splendid clasp Family Bibles.

We will also send printed notices for 120 articles for sale at one dollar each.

For larger clubs the value increases in the same ratio. Our stock of Goods is all new and in good order. The quality of the Goods is better than those used by any other concern in the country. We are of the opinion that, after reading the above advertisement, some parties will come to the conclusion that they have been severely swindled by some of the bogus Gift concerns in this city.

We cannot offer to the person sending us the largest amount of money for a month, a Gift of money or Watches, as that is a violation of the Law against Lotteries; but in addition to the above liberal terms, we will sell to any one who may send us $10, eleven articles from our exchange list, all to be sent in one order; and for $20 we will sell twenty-two articles from our exchange list, all to be sent in one order.

☞Money sent by Registered Letters or by a Postal Money Order, or Draft at our risk. Catalogues sent to any address.

P. S. Agents will please notify us what firms have agents in their town or city, and they will receive our most sincere thanks.

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have
Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the Staff of Life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted, if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless, it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 622 Arch Street, Philadelphia

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extending from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city. any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.

May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.

D. F. COLES, Druggist, Rahway, N. J.

I am selling more of Wolcott's Pain Paint, than any other Patent Medicine.

C. N. CRITTENTON,
Wholesale Druggist, No. 7 6th Ave., N. Y.

I sell more of Wolcott's Pain Paint than all the other patent medicines combined, and I keep a full supply of all that have any demand.

PUMPS! PUMPS!! PUMPS!!!

SYLVESTER G. MASON'S
DOUBLE-ACTING, NON-FREEZING
FORCE PUMP,

Patented August 28th, 1866, and awarded the PREMIUM at the Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York State Fairs, in 1866.

The advantages claimed for this pump over all other patent pumps are as follows, viz: The valves, are composed entirely of cast iron, rendering it the most durable of any pump yet patented. This pump is so constructed that it never freezes, the water dropping back to the level with the water in the well. It is easily worked, and can be used, by attaching hose, in washing wagons, horses, watering gardens, and in case of fire is of valuable service, as water may be thrown to the distance of from sixty to seventy feet in the air from it by the use of a small section of hose

This valuable pump is now offered to the public at the following prices:

Three-quarter in. Pump.		Inch Pump.
From 7 to 10 ft.	$15 00	From 7 to 10 ft.	$17 00
From 10 to 15 ft	17 00	From 10 to 15 ft	18 00

Sewing Machines.

THE GREAT

AMERICAN COMBINATION

Button Hole Overseaming

AND

SEWING MACHINE,

Its Wonderful Popularity Conclusive Proof of its Great Merit.

The increase in the demand for this valuable machine has been TEN FOLD during the last seven months of its first year before the public.

This grand and surprising success is unprecedented in the history of sewing-machines, and we feel fully warranted in claiming that

IT HAS NO EQUAL.

BEING ABSOLUTELY THE BEST

FAMILY MACHINE

IN THE WORLD,

And Intrinsically the Cheapest.

It is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement,) making both the Shuttle or Lock-stitch, and the Overseaming and Button-hole stitch, with equal facility and perfection. It executes in the very best manner every variety of sewing, such as Hemming, Felling, Cording, Tucking, Stitching, Braiding and Quilting, Gathering and sewing on, (done at the same time,) and in addition, Overseams, Embroiders on the edge, and makes beautiful Button and Eyelet-holes in all fabrics.

Every Machine is warranted by the Company, or its Agents, to give entire satisfaction.

Circulars, with full particulars and samples of work done on this Machine, can be had on application at the Salesrooms of

THE AMERICAN BUTTON HOLE OVERSEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE CO., S. W. COR. ELEVENTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

PROSPECTUS.

THE MORNING PATRIOT.

The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.

From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them

The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.

Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.

As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.

TERMS:

For the Daily, one year in advance.........$7 00
For the Daily Six months, in advance...... 3 50
Single copies, THREE CENTS.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.

It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.

Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.

Miscellaneous.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.

He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.

Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.

Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.
